

3a What does it take to earn trust in an artificial intelligence?

There are five pillars that can make you trust an AI. First is Fairness. Second is Explainable. Third is Robustness. Fourth is Transparency and fifth is Data privacy. These are the core values to tell if an AI can be trusted.

3b What are the 3 principles when thinking about AI in an organization?

The first principle is to Augment Human Intelligence. The Second the data belongs to the creator and the last to be transparent.

3c How does socio-technological challenge must be addressed?

First we need to think about the people and the diversity that a certain team has.

The second thing is process how should the group work.

The third is tools how to use them to be more efficient.

3d What does holistically means?

That is the core principles of social technology the three pillars that were addressed in the last question.